Dear Bob:

In connection with the copy of the letter to Foster from our German friend with regard to German-seized property in the United States, I enclose for your files, a copy of the reply which I handed to [redacted] this afternoon. The latter seemed entirely satisfied, even pleased, with this form of answer.

Faithfully yours,

Allen W. Dulles

Dear [Redacted]

I have appreciated the opportunity of talking over with you again the subject matter discussed in the letter of 8 June 1954 from our distinguished friend with regard to the matter of German private property in this country. I believe that the conversation which we had [Redacted] and particularly the comments made by [Redacted] will be of help to you when you next discuss the matter with our distinguished friend.

Please convey to him the expression of our highest regards and tell him that I hope, myself, to visit Germany in the coming weeks and if it should suit his convenience, will welcome an opportunity to see him.

Wishing you a pleasant trip back to Germany, I remain

Faithfully yours,
